A musical score for a four-part setting (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) of a song. The second system consists of four staves. The Soprano and Alto parts are in treble clef, and the Tenor and Bass parts are in bass clef. The music is written in a key with one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature (C). The melody continues from the first system. The lyrics for this system are: "Be too bu i sy swimin' to make the toys? And what will Santa do if the No

Be too bu i sy swimin' to make the toys? And what will Santa do if the No

The first system of the musical score consists of four staves. The top two staves are in treble clef, and the bottom two are in bass clef. The key signature has one sharp (F#). The music features a melody in the upper staves and a harmonic accompaniment in the lower staves. The melody is composed of eighth and quarter notes, while the accompaniment uses a mix of eighth, quarter, and half notes, often with beamed sixteenth notes.

(No)rth Pole melts too fast is this Christmas gonna be his last? What will

The second system of the musical score also consists of four staves in the same key signature and clef arrangement as the first system. The melody continues with some longer note values, including a half note and a whole note, which are marked with a pp (pianissimo) dynamic. The accompaniment remains consistent with the first system, providing a steady harmonic foundation.
